Fees and expenses

Generally Vega won't charge you any fees for the financial advice we provide to you. This is possible because, on settlement of a loan, we usually receive commission from the lender. Any exceptions to this general position are explained below.

We may charge you a one-off fee if the following occurs:

When we don't receive commission from the lender: If you request that we provide financial advice and we do not receive a commission from the lender, we may charge you a one-off fee. Any such fee would be agreed and authorised by you in writing before we complete the services, and would be based on an estimate of the time spent providing the advice.

(This may arise in the rare event that you request that we provide services in relation to either a product that is offered by a lender that we do not hold an accreditation with, or a product that is outside our usual arrangements with our product providers).

You will be invoiced for any one-off fee and will be given 30 days to make payment.

Conflict of interests and Commissions

On settlement of a mortgage we usually receive commission from the applicable product provider. The commission is generally of an upfront nature but may also include a trail commission. We also receive a fixed rate roll over fee from some product providers if we assist in refixing your loan. As soon as we know the type of loan and amount we are putting in place, and that it has been accepted by the lender, we will let you know the amount and frequency of the commission received.

We manage these conflicts of interest by:

- Always recommending the best product for your purpose regardless of the type and amount of commission we will receive.
- Ensuring the amount of any loan is in accordance with your identified needs.

We can also receive a referral fee or commission if we refer you to our referral partners.

We will not disclose any confidential information obtained from or about you to any other person, except in accordance with our Privacy Policy.
